Fielding subscribes to 3 databases with streaming clinical video content: Psychotherapy.net, Counseling & Therapy Complete, and psychoanalysis videos from Psychoanalytic Electronic Publishing (PEP).

Psychotherapy.net and Counseling & Therapy Complete contain both recordings of live counseling sessions as well as interviews with experts in the field. The videos from PEP including authors and lecturers discussing papers, etc.

Accessing the video collections

From the main library site click on the ‘Videos’ tab:

- Psychotherapy.net Video Library
  A library of streaming training videos featuring leading practitioners and organized by approach, issue, expert, etc.

- Counseling and Therapy Complete
  Includes clinical mental health demonstrations, actual therapy sessions, compelling documentaries on the human condition, psychotherapy transcripts, as well as client narratives and reference works.

- Psychoanalytic Electronic Publishing
  A growing collection of videos including interviews with psychoanalysts discussing their key papers and more.
Similar to other databases, you can use the ‘browse’ function to view videos by therapist, therapeutic approach, or presenting condition. Or, you can use the search boxes available within each resource to run a keyword search on a particular topic.

Below you will find a screenshot of each collection’s interface:
